

Scoil Gheimhridh Sydney 2009

The Scoil Gheimhridh Sydney 2009 is a long weekend of Irish language and craic. Come and improve your Irish language skills.

The key activity of the weekend is Irish language classes. Other Irish activities provide a break in a convivial environment. These include the official opening, table quiz, guest speaker, concert and optional classes in poetry, singing, tin whistle, bodhrán or dance. Informal sessions continue into the wee small hours. BYOG and join the fun.

The school is open to adults from across Australia:

- complete newcomers to the Irish language
- those who want to improve their Irish, for example those who learnt it at school
- fluent people who want to meet to converse in Irish and to help others learn.

There are classes at five levels to suit the Irish language skills of the participants. On the Saturday and Sunday there are three language classes per day.

Dates: 5 - 8 June 2009

Venue: Chevalier Resource Centre, 1 Roma Avenue, Kensington, Sydney

Booking essential: by 15 May 2009.

The Scoil commences on Friday evening, 5 June, with the official opening.

Lessons begin the next morning and continue throughout Saturday and Sunday with cultural interludes.

Depending on demand there will a trip to Waverley Cemetery on the Monday morning to see the 1798 memorial.

The Scoil Gheimhridh has been running for six years now This is the second Scoil organised by the Irish Language School Sydney - Scoil na Gaeilge Sydney Inc.

A lot of people are helping us: the teachers from Adelaide, Melbourne, Perth, Brisbane and Sydney, the committee of the Irish Language School Sydney, present and past donors and students. Our thanks to all of our supporters.
